

SEVENTH INDIANA VETERANS.—A contingent of two hundred and twenty-five men passed through the city on the way to Indianapolis, where they will be regrouped for thirty days. They had been on duty beyond Knoxville and endured the worst and bitterest summer season in our hard service.

ARRIVAL OF REGIMENTS.—The 6888 Central Postal Directory, the 8888 Central Postal Directory and the 8888 Central Postal Directory arrived at a late hour last night, on an early train from Indianapolis, on their way to the front. The 8888 Central Postal Directory is a new regiment, having expired.

The numbers about 500 men. They are from the State of New York.

A REVOLUTIONARY RELIC—John P. Putnam, a grandson of General Putnam, has consented for exhibition of the Albany Historical Society the pistol which was used by the first powder of the Revolution. It was remembered that Major Putnam rode to the crowd drawn up in hostile array at Freetown, ordered "Disperse, ye rebels," and his pistol in their midst. His horse reared up under him, but he managed to escape. The pistol was found in the saddle, in the property of General Putnam, and

The re-nomination of Major-General Grant Lincoln-Gonzalez, which was sent to Congress, was referred to the Military Committee for its opinion on the message in affairs relative to the army.

The Senate to-day confirmed the nomination of C. M. Orr to be Assistant of Internal Revenue for the 3d District of California, and the House passed the bill to increase the revenue for the 4th District of California.

The bill which passed the House to-day to establish a Bureau of Freedmen's Affairs creates that office in the War Department. It is to be headed by a Commissioner, and its estimated salary of $4,000, to whom will be referred the adjustment and determination of all questions arising under any laws existing or hereafter to be enacted concerning the status of African-Americans and persons of color, and to become free from any restrictions.

Mr. Thomas wanted to attend to some business at the Quaker General, Solicitor, or whatever it is called, and left the others to their own devices. Mr. Wilson caused a letter from Solicitor Whiting to be read, showing that claimants principally for persons in the rebellion would be allowed the same rights as those of persons who had not been in rebellion. It was expected, which would be the effect of ending the war. It would be better to restore action on claims left without any understanding.

A message was then received from Mr. Lincoln, declining the appointment of a committee of conference on the wisdom of the war. On motion of Mr. Hendricks a joint resolution was adopted regarding into and into whose direction was what caused the rebellion. Mr. Stubbins a copy rule bill, which is

The United States has passed a bill for relief of Commander George Henry Preble who was dismissed from the naval service for a misapprehension of the fuel consumption of the ship which sailed into a mine field and was subsequently restored. The bill will him full pay as a commander during the period of his suspension.

Senator Pomeroy appeared in his office Thursday, and received the congratulations of numerous Senators upon the much-talked-of presidential campaign, which, instead of being dropped as was expected, he is now to be crowned as his act and his policy.

What would not the consideration, if this is to be by means of a good seed, in clubs, and in their correspondence, much valuable information?

The economic value of our manure is gauged by the answer given to this question; so also is the intrinsic value of the pure itself in the spring decided by the economy of the fall and the preparation of the soil in the fall, or dropping it in heaps, to lie through winter and be the ensuing spring, and many other like ideas that we often see.

So long as the manure and compost is regarded as the "former's bank," it is not so tested as to realize that the dividends. So much four per cent is held by farmers that it requires the clearest vision, the most careful experimen-
